The following revisions to the Regents’ Bylaws have been proposed and are now being posted for public comment. Please address any comments to publiccomments@umich.edu. All comments must be received by Aug. 7. Additions are underlined; deletions are struck-through.

Proposed revisions to Bylaws 6.02 and 11.10

The following revisions reflect the change in name of the University of Michigan-Flint School of Management to the College of Business, as approved by the regents on May 14, 2009.

Sec. 6.02. Degree Program Definitions (revised September 2004)

Undergraduate degree programs are offered by:

The University of Michigan (Ann Arbor Campus)

A. Alfred Taubman College of Architecture and Urban Planning

College of Arts and Sciences

School of Art and Design

Stephen M. Ross School of Business

School of Dentistry

School of Education

College of Engineering

Division of Kinesiology

College of Literature, Science, and the Arts

School of Music, Theatre & Dance

School of Natural Resources and Environment

School of Nursing

College of Pharmacy

The University of Michigan-Dearborn

College of Arts, Sciences, and Letters

School of Education

School of Engineering

College of Business School of Management

The University of Michigan-Flint

College of Arts and Sciences

School of Health Professions and Studies

School of Management

School of Education and Human Services

Graduate degree programs are offered by the schools and colleges on all three campuses through the agency of the Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies, leading to the master’s, doctoral, and related degrees.

In addition, the A. Alfred Taubman College of Architecture and Urban Planning, the Stephen M. Ross School of Business, the School of Health Professions and Studies, the School of Natural Resources and Environment, and the School of Management: College of Business at the University of Michigan-Flint, and the School of Education and Human Services at the University of Michigan-Flint, are authorized to offer the master’s degree in appropriate professional fields and the School of Music, Theatre & Dance, the master’s degree in applied music.

Graduate professional degree programs are offered by the:

School of Dentistry

College of Pharmacy

Law School

School of Public Health

Medical School

School of Social Work

Sec. 11.10. The University of Michigan-Flint School of Management College of Business Executive Committee

The executive committee will consist of the dean and five faculty members of senate rank to be appointed by the Regents on recommendation by the chancellor and the president. The appointed members will not be eligible for reappointment until after the lapse of one year. The terms will be for three years and will be so adjusted that one vacancy will occur each year. The dean will chair the committee.

Proposed Revisions to Bylaws 11.25 and 11.26 (The University of Michigan Press)

Sec. 11.25. The University of Michigan Press

The University of Michigan Press, which promotes scholarly communications, is a unit of the University Library, will continue to publish books and other documents on the behalf of the University, including books and other manuscripts offered for publication under the University of Michigan Press imprint, and to approve all expenditures for publication by the University Press.

Proposed revision to Bylaw 11.06

It is proposed that Bylaw 11.06 be eliminated, since the University Committee on Broadcasting no longer exists.

Sec. 11.06. University Committee on Broadcasting (revised November 1993)

The University Broadcasting Service shall be under the direction of the University Committee on Broadcasting, which shall be responsible for formulating and carrying out policies and programs on all University broadcasting, to approve or reject plans and policies governing all University broadcast activities, as follows:

The operation of all educational radio and television activities of the University

The use of University-owned broadcasting stations and related properties

The provision of such services as may be requested by academic departments and other University units, including those personnel to install, operate, service, program, and supervise television and radio installations and activities.

The committee shall act also for the University in presenting radio or television programs over other University-approved installations, and in considering all requests for official University sponsorship or participation in non-University-related programs, other than those for which there is a fixed policy, such as programs sponsored by the Department of Inter-collegiate Athletics.

The University Committee on Broadcasting shall be composed of the following: a representative of the provost and executive vice president for academic affairs, the director of University communications, the chief of the University Extension Service, the director of University communications, or, if no one is appointed, the director of University communications; the director of the University Extension Service, or the director of University communications, or, if no one is appointed, the director of University communications; the director of broadcasting, or a representative of the University Senate who shall be appointed by the Board of Regents to serve a term of three years, the term of which shall be so arranged that two vacancies shall occur each year. No senate member in this category may serve more than two consecutive terms.

The president shall appoint the chair, who shall serve as the executive officer of the committee. The chair shall serve for a period of three years or until relieved by the president. The director of broadcasting, responsible to the director of University communications, shall be the administrative officer of the broadcasting service.

The director of broadcasting shall be responsible for the management of the service and for program operations within the policies approved by the committee.